Offenbach Serenaded.

NEW YORK, May 6.—Offenbach was serenaded last night with his own music at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. He appeared on the balcony and replied in French, thanking them and declared he was enthusiastic with the city and the reception. The Lotus Club dined him to-night.

Conkling and the Patent-Locks.

The Rochester Express [illegible] afternoon [illegible] denial of Sargent [illegible] of the charge against Conkling in the patent lock case. It is alleged that it was an old story published in the Washington [illegible] and apologized for by the same paper, and that Conkling acted only as attorney under the law.

Black Hills.

CHICAGO, May 6.—The Times' St. Paul special from Bismarck reports that a large party led by Major Whitehead, late Indian agent at [illegible], will leave to-morrow for the Black Hills. The company is made of parties from Pittsburg, Grand Rapids and various parts of Minnesota.

Rich Mines.

Letters from Thomas Madden and other [illegible] extravagant mining reports. N. Velstorm of Bismarck washed in one week from his claim two miles above Rapid City mills one pound of gold. Another Bismarck man writes that he washed out $12 a day from his claim on Deadwood creek. Immediately adjoining Rapid City claims are yielding ten cents to the pan. Allen and Coucar of Hill City with four men took out in one day $2,000 instead of $200, as recently reported.

A Dastardly Act.

A report has been brought into Standing Rock that a chief called Slave met or overtook a party of whites going to the Black Hills, on the Fort Pierre route. Slave undertook to go into the gold hunters camp under a white flag when he was shot dead. His party tried to recover his body but were driven off and had to wait until the whites moved on. It is said on the part of the gold hunters that Slave's band had been following them several days probably hoping to stampede and steal their horses and that they warned Slave to go back before firing on him.

Most of the young Sioux have left Standing Rock ostensibly for the purpose of hunting. Scouts from supposed hostile bands keep watch day and night in the vicinity of Fort Lincoln.

More Indian Troubles.

FORT LARAMIE, Wy., May 6.—Indians run off [illegible] head of horses and mules from Huntoon's ranch belonging to Colonel Bullock of Cheyenne and a Mr. Johnson, yesterday. Jas. Huntoon, a brother, was killed. His body was found eight miles from the ranch at Goshen Hole and brought into the ranch by J. H. Owens of Chug Springs ranch and Little Bat, a hunter and scout. Mr. Owens' ox train and May & Parrott's mule train of Cheyenne were attacked by Indians on the 3d in the Red Canon. They made a strong defense, keeping up a running fight for some time, corraling trains and fighting from behind wagons and teams and finally reaching a good point for natural defense stopped and drove the Indians off. One man was wounded and 14 horses killed.

Accidental Drowning.

FORT LARAMIE, May 7.—John McGregor, 1st sergeant of Co. K, Capt. Eagan, 2d cavalry, was accidentally drowned while out with two men trying to find deserters to-day. He was crossing Laramie river when his horse became frightened or unruly and when nearly across all control over him was lost. He turned back into the river, got into deep water and was swept down by a strong current. McGregor was an excellent man. He was with Capt. Eagan in his charge lately made through Crazy Horse's village. He leaves a wife and two children. He was a member of Capitol Lodge of Masons, Omaha.

Gold Dust from Custer City.

CHEYENNE, May 7.—A. J. Parshal brought to this city yesterday from Custer $1,000 in gold dust.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Report on Government Printing about to be Made.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—Chairman Vance, of the committee on printing, will report on government printer Clapp next week before he goes south on the Louisiana investigating committee. Vance will recommend that Clapp's case be sent to the grand jury for an indictment on a charge of embezzlement.

Clymer's Committee nearly through their Labors.

NEW YORK, May 6.—The Post's Washington special says Clymer's investigating committee have nearly concluded their examination of witnesses and would some days ago have presented the evidence to the House of Representatives for printing if the impeachment managers had not asked that this be delayed until after the termination of the impeachment trial. The managers assign as a reason for their request that if the evidence taken should be printed it might influence the trial and some parts of it might be used to strengthen the defense. The committee had not decided upon the request but Clymer has said to other members that it should be granted.

Provision for Small Change.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—For the purpose of relieving so far as practicable the scarcity of small change the Secretary of the Treasury has authorized the treasurer and the several assistant treasurers and bullion depositors of the United States to pay silver in the ordinary disbursements from the silver coin on hand prior to the passage of the specie resumption act of Jan. 14, 1875.

Application for Pardon of McKee Referred to the Attorney-General.

The application for the pardon of Wm. McKee presented to the President yesterday was to-day with other papers in the case presented to the Attorney General by the counsel for McKee. The application is now before the Attorney General but yet having been referred as is usual to the U. S. attorney at St. Louis, though this action will probably be taken without delay. The Attorney General has also received a number of letters from private individuals asking for McKee's pardon.

Interview with Secretary Fish on the Chinese Question.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—Congressmen Page and Piper had an interview with Secretary Fish to-day on the Chinese question. He assured them he was not only willing, but anxious to procure a treaty modification to prevent the evils of which the Pacific coast complains and reiterated his former statement to Page, that he had already instructed Minister Seward to bring the subject earnestly to the attention of the Chinese government, but he was at a loss to know just what modifications would accomplish the desired end; he therefore asks the Pacific delegation in Congress to consult with each other and the committees on foreign affairs in both houses and then suggest to him what they think best, whereupon he will immediately forward the suggestions and direct Minister Seward to secure the Chinese government's consent to a treaty modification in accordance therewith if possible. Page has to-day had a talk with Prof. Seelye, a member of Congress of very high standing from Massachusetts, who has traveled in China and who promises his best assistance in showing that the Burlingame treaty is a one sided affair benefiting China at our expense and requiring amendment for many reasons. Page says that if when the end of the session arrives nothing shall have been accomplished of a positive nature in this regard he will move for the appointment of a joint committee of two Senators and three Representatives to visit the Pacific coast during the recess and report on the subject at the commencement of the next session. A strong report signed by such men as Seelye would [illegible] command attention then if it cannot [illegible] sooner. Senator Sargent and [illegible] will only ask the total abrogation of the [illegible] articles of the treaty though [illegible] fears that Secretary Fish will not be willing to go that far without legislation.

Effect of Sargent's Chinese Speech.

Sargent's speech on the Chinese question has created much interest here. Congress [illegible] on the question is awakening and [illegible] efforts and the discussion by the California press. California was slow to appreciate the [illegible] of Chinese immigration and [illegible] uprising [illegible] Eastern sentiment respond but slowly. [illegible] Sargent's argument and statements of facts [illegible] expressing the certain features of the degrading influence of Chinese in California has seemed to startle the public and [illegible] a more careful examination and review of the whole subject. The threatened mob violence in San Francisco however tends to create a reaction against this [illegible]

This amendatory bill will be submitted to the [illegible] passage [illegible] be [illegible] for report.

Water-proof Currency.

The Sun's Washington correspondent says the commission appointed to investigate the durability of water proof currency reported the process did not increase the durability of fractional currency. The [illegible] of currency was a fat job to the [illegible] of [illegible] and engraving.

The Japanese Indemnity.

[illegible] speech in opposition of the Senate was made this week in support of the bill for returning to Japan our share of the Japanese indemnity fund, amounting with interest to $1,000,000 less $140,000 to be distributed among [illegible] and crews of the United States vessels which assisted in [illegible] the Japanese forts in the straits of Simonaski. The majority of the committee favored the bill because no American citizen had suffered more than a trifling loss for [illegible] the indemnity was exacted and therefore there is no equity in taking [illegible] nation. The [illegible] urged that the Japanese [illegible] to close the [illegible] was [illegible] its agreement to open the [illegible] and the [illegible] indemnity was rightly intended [illegible] punitive.

Booth's brief speech was finished, epigrammatic, elegant and [illegible] the process [illegible] to be a sentiment not unkind of an instinctive [illegible] this money [illegible] while the public [illegible] conscience is not easy—a feeling that it is a tribute from the weak to the strong, not a just debt. That it is a penalty which power enforces, not an indemnity for an injury suffered. While it might be easy to convict the government of Japan out of the text books which are supposed to contain the distilled wisdom of the ages of civilization which we inherit, yet we should not forget that we [illegible] part of an attempt to force Japan into an unwilling participation into that civilization by whose severest rules she was judged in the first stages of her novitiate. After elaborating this suggestion he described how curiosity, avarice, enterprise, exorbitant necessity sought and found out Japan after the currents of commerce had swept round her and left her as a sacred monument of Oriental life over which hung the undisturbed and impenetrable mystery of unnumbered and uncounted ages, and closed with an eloquent appeal for the bill.

Sargent took a very different view of the question. He did not believe this money was improperly obtained. He urged that the whole of it should be converted into the Treasury for the benefit of the tax payers of the country. There would be just as much reason for ceding back to Mexico part of the territory exacted from her as for repaying this military exaction. He also said the only demand for the bill came from American citizens inspired in some measure by selfish motives connected with educational projects for Japan and that the Japanese government having made no representations on the subject would be placed in a humiliating attitude by our offering to return money on the ground of her weakness. The bill will pass the Senate but probably fail in the House.

The Kelton Mail Route.

The Postmaster General at Senator Mitchell's instance has declined to approve the special agent's recommendation for a reduction of mail service on routes from Kelton, Utah, to The Dalles, Oregon, and from Winnemucca to Boise City.

Admitted to West Point.

W. H. Upton of California, appointed by the President as an alternate cadet, has passed the examination to fill a vacancy and has been admitted to the military academy.

The Umatilla Reservation.

The House committee on Indian affairs will report favorably on Lane's bill to remove the Indians from the Umatilla reservation and open it to settlement.

Address to the Colored Men.

The World's Washington special says the Independent Political Union, composed of colored men formed here, has issued a letter containing the following: You cannot afford longer to allow yourselves to be used for perpetuating in power a party that has bound you hand and foot and robbed you of your hard earnings by instituting a Freedman's Bank ostensibly to make you thrifty, but in fact with an eye to enriching Republican cormorants and vampires whose disreputable characters were too notorious to receive other Federal appointments.

It concludes as follows: The Republican party has been false to itself, false to the negro whom it has pretended to favor but in fact which it has made perverse because of the policy of hate it has forced him to accept against the people with whom he lives and must continue to live. For these reasons we expect you to co-operate with us in the coming Presidential election and aid by your ballots to retrieve our good name and the lost honor of our common country. Friends, may God enlighten you and lead you to see your political duty in the coming contest, is the wish of your friends and well wishers.

A Queer Treasury Story.

A man named Teal, residing here, tells a queer story. He was employed in the treasury department before the plan of destroying paper money by chopping it in pieces came in vogue. To burn redeemed notes a large furnace in the department was used. One day he was placing bundles of notes in the furnace when one package, containing thousands of dollars, became loosened. He examined it closely and to his surprise discovered it to be packages of worthless paper. Teal will be summoned to testify.

Grant Still after Custer.

A Herald's Chicago special says Gen. Sheridan received dispatches from Sherman yesterday to the effect that the President insists that Custer shall not [illegible] command. Custer reached here yesterday and was stopped by Gen. Sheridan, who said he had orders from Washington to detain him till further orders were received from Washington. Gen. Custer was afterward permitted to proceed.

The Probable Decision in the Emma Mine Business.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—The best impression here is that the foreign affairs committee report will relieve Schenck of any charge of fraud in connection with the Emma mine but will express the opinion that the acceptance of the directorship was incompatible with his position as minister. The growing disgust with the method of the pending Congressional investigations is well expressed by a religious journal which says it is time to investigate these investigations. The party in power uses witnesses just as a burglar uses a dark lantern—a little light reflected on certain spots but of [illegible] is any suspicion that he holds of the lantern is suspected by the good man of the house [illegible] goes the light.

Hawaiian Treaty.

On Fernando Wood's motion the House had made the Hawaiian treaty bill the special order for next Monday. At the conclusion of the call of States for the bill three more speeches were made on it. The expectation is to reach a final vote on Monday.

Klamath Reservation and other Bills.

The Senate committees have reported favorably on the Klamath reservation lieu lands and the bill to extend the time for the survey and location of the Portland and Salt Lake railroad three years and one private bill to issue a duplicate bill for quartermaster's checks lost by France & Rosenbaum of California and allowing the court of claims jurisdiction of the claim of Geo. F. Payne, formerly of San Francisco, for damage done to his Louisiana plantation. The Pueblo reservation bill still awaits the approval of the President.

Postal Changes.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—Offices established: Howell Prairie, Marion county, Oregon, D. W. Elledge postmaster; Quinn, Columbia county, Oregon, Jas. Quinn postmaster; [illegible] Rock, Multnomah county, Oregon, John Eylestrap postmaster; Klickitat Landing, Klikitat, W. T., J. M. Williams postmaster. Postmasters appointed: F. H. Hirst [illegible] Coos City, Coos county, Oregon; William Fricker, Huntley, Wasco county, Oregon; George Tibbetts, Kenton, King county, W. T.

Death of an ex Member of Congress.

Hon. John A. Searing, ex-member of Congress from the 1st district of New York, died yesterday.

Progress of the Impeachment Trial.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—The arguments in the impeachment trial will [illegible] brought to a close to-morrow when [illegible] the manager [illegible] will conclude his remarks commenced Friday. Judge Black's argument for respondent will follow and the court will then be [illegible] to decide whether it has jurisdiction [illegible] probable that the decision will be made until after the return of Congress from Philadelphia. The Senate [illegible] the argument concluded to-morrow will meet at 11 o'clock [illegible] by Knott and Judge Black when the Senate will [illegible] conference [illegible] take place a large number of lawyers in that body propose to give their views before the [illegible] the Judgment [illegible]

Probable Proceedings of the Senate after the Impeachment.

WASHINGTON, May [illegible].—[illegible] the bill in relation to [illegible] regard to Chinese immigration will be called up at an early day for action and Morton will [illegible] an attempt to have the resolution [illegible] early in the session in regard to [illegible] works.

Insane Asylum Investigation.

The investigation into the affair of the government insane asylum has been in progress for several weeks. The character of recent testimony is entirely different from that taken [illegible] from the grave [illegible] favorable light.

CONGRESSIONAL.

Senate.

WASHINGTON, May [illegible].—Senate resumed the consideration of the articles of impeachment against Belknap.

[illegible] submitted the following questions to the [illegible]: [illegible] to be officers at the same time, [illegible] by removal and the other by resignation, and one rather than the other is subject to impeachment [illegible] If any distinction between the two cases exists please state it?

Second. Is a private citizen liable to impeachment under the constitution of the United States, [illegible] having previously held an office [illegible] distinguishes him in this respect from other citizens does [illegible] embrace the distinction [illegible] the constitution or the principle in which it is found.

Mitchell of Oregon submitted the following question: The constitution provides that when the President of the United States is tried on impeachment the chief justice shall preside. Suppose a late President were impeached for high crimes and misdemeanors committed while President and presented at the bar of the Senate for trial, who would preside there, the chief justice or the president of the Senate?

Manager Knott was unable to conclude his argument commenced yesterday on account of physical indisposition and leave was granted to conclude Monday. Manager Jenks then read a lengthy argument to the effect that the Senate has jurisdiction in the case, at the conclusion of which the Senate took a recess of twenty minutes.

The item for postmasters was increased to $[illegible]. A long debate ensued on abolishing the letter carrier system in towns containing less than 10,000 people. Without disposing of the question the House adjourned.

House.

Hewitt introduced a bill in relation to savings banks. It provides for amending the revised statutes so that no stamp tax shall be required on receipts of savings banks or institutions for savings having no capital stock and doing no other business than receiving deposits to be loaned or invested for the sole benefit of parties making such deposits without profit or benefit to an association or company. The bill was referred to the ways and means committee and was accompanied by a large number of petitions from savings banks in New York.

The House then went into committee of the whole on the postoffice appropriation bill.

After recess Hoar began his argument and concluded, after which the Senate adjourned.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Dublin University Crew for Philadelphia.

LONDON, May 6.—The rowing and boat clubs of Dublin University have organized a joint representative crew of four to take part in the contests at Philadelphia, consisting of Rentland and Hickson of the rowing club and H. F. and E. C. Barrington of the boat club, the latter being the stroke oar. The crew practice daily and are already in capital form. It is probable that Elliott of the University rowing club will take over his sculls as a private individual.

British Parliament.

LONDON, May 5.—In the House of Commons to-day the under secretary for the foreign department stated that the United States government had not communicated its decision to abrogate the tenth clause of the treaty of 1842.

In the House of Commons this evening Disraeli, replying to the motion of the conservatives for the production of the papers relative to the Russian conquest of Khokand, said the government did not regard the natural development of Russian empire with jealousy. He declared the understanding between England and Russia was never better than at present. The motion was withdrawn.

European Grain Markets.

LIVERPOOL, May 5.—A leading grain circular says the supply of English wheat is somewhat more liberal and prices in some markets have been in buyers' favor. Foreign grain remains inanimate and sales are difficult to make except at a concession of a shilling a quarter. Purchases for the continent are still made off the coast but not to a sufficient extent to admit of any improvement in prices. The market here to-day was very thinly attended, while wheat declined a penny a cental and the [illegible] two pence. Flour was easier and exceedingly dull. Corn was in fair request and unchanged.

The reported Diplomatic Conference at Rome Denied.

ROME, May 6.—The official Gazette authoritatively denies the reported conference of foreign diplomatists and cardinals stated to have taken place with the view of ascertaining the best means of ending the conflicts between the various states and the church.

Religious Liberty in Spain.

MADRID, May 6.—The Cortes, by a vote of 16[illegible] to 12[illegible], have rejected the amendment to the religious clause of the constitution which proposed that dissenters should be restricted to private worship. The Minister of Justice declared that dissenters would enjoy the same civil rights as Catholics.

San Sebastian municipality have refused to allow delegates sent to Madrid to negotiate with the government relative to the Fueros upon the basis proposed by the Prime Minister that the Basque provinces and Navarre must submit to conscription and pay taxes like other provinces.

National Grant for Sending French Workmen to the Centennial Approved.

PARIS, May 6.—The committee of budget approved the grant for sending a delegation of workmen to the centennial exhibition at Philadelphia, rejecting the amendment of Floquet requiring the Minister of Commerce to consult with the workmen's associations relative to the selection of persons to be sent. The committee wish the minister to have full liberty of choice. The government approves the proposal.

The government has ordered all mayors and members of the municipal council to be removed.

Liberty of the Press.

Ricard, Minister of the Interior, has sent a circular to the Prefects ordering them to permit the fullest liberty in regard to the sale of newspapers.

Fire.

The college at Charleville and its library have been destroyed by fire. The amount of damage is $60,000.

Passengers from a Disabled Ship Landed.

LONDON, May 6.—The steamer St. Laurent landed here forty passengers of the steamer Oata from Liverpool for Quebec who were taken off that vessel May 2d in latitude [illegible] 30 and longitude [illegible] 30 west. The Oata was making for St. George's channel with a temporary steering gear, having lost her rudder.

British Representatives Sail for Philadelphia.

LONDON, May 6.—The Bothnia which sails from Liverpool for New York takes out Isaac Lowthian Bell, member of parliament from Hartlepool, Col. Rich and Mayor Noble, judges appointed to represent Great Britain at the Centennial Exposition. DISASTROUS TORNADO.

Terrible Wind and Rain Storm Throughout the West.

Loss of Life and Damage to Property.

CHICAGO, May 6.—About [illegible] o'clock this afternoon a terrific rain storm accompanied by a [illegible] tornado visited the city and did damage to property. The storm spent itself chiefly on the south and north sides, the west escaping almost uninjured. The wind seemed to come from above and dropped here and there over the city, skipping some portions which lay in its course. Among the casualties reported are the following: The Michigan Southern depot was unroofed and six laborers working in the vicinity were more or less hurt, one seriously. The massive steeple of Grace church, 175 feet high, fell and crashing through the roof, penetrated to the aisle. The choir were practicing in the church at the time but were not injured. The loss to the church, exclusive of the steeple, is estimated at $7,000. The spire of the Wabash avenue Methodist church also broke off and fell into a lot adjoining. The tin roof of No. 117 Wabash avenue was carried off and the building left defenseless against the storm. The upper portion of the roof of the [illegible] county hospital was carried away and the chimneys falling against the lower portions caused much injury to the building. The patients were speedily removed and none were seriously hurt. The wind took off a large portion of Osborne's harvesting machine manufactory and 60 feet of the west wall, smashing the machinery and inflicting other damage to the amount of about $5,000. The house of Henry W. King was unroofed and damaged badly. The omnibus barn, on Blue Island avenue, near Twenty second street, was unroofed. A three story frame house, corner of Paulina and Twenty second streets, was blown down and one boy killed; besides this several of the tenants were injured and some limbs broken. The massive fog bell at the Crib, together with the newly erected tower, was swept into the lake and entirely destroyed. The loss will probably be over $[illegible],000. Hacks and carriages were wrecked in the streets and abandoned. Nearly 40 vehicles were seen on the south side after the tornado had passed, all turned over and some of them worthless on account of damages by the storm. Innumerable chimneys toppled and signs were hurled into the streets in all directions. Little loss of life is reported as yet. The Palmer and Gardner houses are said to have been badly damaged but no particulars can be ascertained at this hour. On the lake the force of the storm seems to have been less, but nearly every vessel lying inside the harbor and in the river [illegible] lost their sails or masts or portions of rigging.

CHICAGO, May [illegible].—At a late hour to-night a few further particulars of the damage have come to light. The loss to the Palmer House is about $2,000, to the Gardner House $1,000, to the county hospital about $5,000. In Page's candy store on Lake street four girls were seriously hurt and two of them may die from injuries received from the chimney falling through the roof. Six men were buried under the falling walls of the Michigan Southern freight depot. One of them will probably die and the others had legs, arms and bones badly broken and some may not recover. The roof of the passenger depot was partly demolished. The total damage is roughly estimated at a quarter of a million dollars and will probably not be much less than that. There are no great losses, but innumerable small ones.

Train Blown from the Track.

CHICAGO, May 7.—There are few additional facts to give concerning last evening's tornado. The steeple of the Hyde Park Presbyterian church was blown down but no serious damage resulted. The lake shipping seems to have escaped almost entirely uninjured except what vessels were inside the harbor, which were dismantled, etc. About 3:40 last night the passenger train on the Illinois Central Railroad while near Malton had five cars, one of which was a sleeper, blown from the track. The train was going at full speed but was immediately stopped, the engine remaining on the track. Nearly all the passengers were more or less hurt. The following are the names of those most severely injured: Wm. K. Ackerman, general auditor Illinois Central, right collar bone and left shoulder broken; Mrs. Ackerman, arm badly injured; Hon. Peter Doyle, Secretary of State of Wisconsin, internally injured; Brakeman Warner, back injured and skull fractured, and will probably die. The colored porter lost an eye. The wounded were taken to their homes. Trains running again.

Immense Damage at Leavenworth.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., May 6.—At 3 o'clock this morning this vicinity was visited by the most disastrous wind storm Leavenworth ever experienced. It had been raining almost incessantly for sixty hours and at the time the storm struck the town the rain was still coming down in torrents. At an early hour in the evening lightning began to play across the sky, the whole air seemed to be filled with electricity, and all night long flashes and reports followed each other and in such rapid succession that there was almost an unbroken glare of lightning and roar of thunder. At a few moments after 3 o'clock a sharp breeze came up from the east which continued not over a minute, then there was a dead calm and the rainfall ceased. Then began to be heard the distant roaring of the coming tornado. In a moment more the wind struck us and it seemed for a time that everything above ground was doomed to destruction. Just as the hurricane struck the city there came a blinding flash of lightning with a crash of thunder that made the earth rattle. Then was a terrific roaring of wind which cannot be likened to anything but itself. The creaking and groaning of trembling buildings, the crash of falling walls and flying timbers made an exhibition of the fury of the elements which those who witnessed it will never desire to see repeated. The wind cloud was funnel shaped, with the small end down. It moved with an oscillating motion from west to east, rebounding like a bombshell, scattering ruin in its pathway wherever it struck the earth. The loss to the city and county cannot be less than $150,000 and may reach $250,000.

LEAVENWORTH, May 6.—The following are some of the most damaging results of the storm: Leavenworth carpet manufactory with machinery valued at $30,000 totally destroyed. The roof of the Odd Fellows hall, one of the largest buildings in the city, was torn off, and the interior of the building ruined by water. Part of the roof fell on agricultural hall and the house of Mobbitt, crushing in the roof of that building. Another part was carried two hundred yards, and crushed in one end of a large boarding house, but happily without injuring any of the inmates. The roof of W. C. Lalanstein's large warehouse was blown off. The iron roof of the Union Depot was blown off, also a part of the south wall of Hoffman's liquor store, part of the north wall of the Leavenworth mill and the entire roof of Harrison's block. Ten other large houses are more or less damaged. Some thirty smaller buildings were unroofed or blown down, and almost innumerable lesser injuries inflicted. The line of the tornado was directly through the heart of the city west to east and extended in width from Oak to Shawnee streets.

Unprecedented Rain Storm.

KANSAS CITY, May 6.—There has been a most uninterrupted and unprecedented rain fall during the last two days, causing immense damage and delays to railroads. None of the roads centering here sent out trains this morning on time and no trains arrived except on the Missouri Pacific and Missouri and Fort Scott roads. The Hannibal and St. Joe road is blocked near Cameron and [illegible] passenger trains are held at Liberty. There is a serious break in the Missouri Pacific between here and Leavenworth near [illegible] and also in the Council Bluffs road near Parkville. The Kansas Pacific is interrupted by washout near De Soto. The entire railroad traffic at this point has been delayed and interrupted twenty four hours and it will be several days before the usual order of things is restored. A serious land slide occurred on Bluff street by which the railroad track was covered, and all communication between Union depot and the railroad bridge interrupted.

What Spalding is Reported to have Said.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—The Chronicle this morning publishes an interview with Spalding, in which the latter is reported as saying that he was forced to employ Pinney, knowing nothing of him, though having no reason to believe that there was anything wrong about him. He was given to understand that his retention of his office depended upon the continuance of Pinney in his position as purchasing clerk, that his own reappointment was at Pinney's instance, on condition that the latter should remain as clerk, that Sargent ran both army and navy on this coast, and Pinney was in favor with him. He says he will soon wind up his defense, during which he hopes to bring out the bottom facts. He also mentioned the manner in which the Hanscom family, in connection with Montaigne, had managed the matter of contracts and supplies in their own interest and with very little deference to himself. He says the judge advocate brought one charge of purchasing certain supplies at exorbitant rates, but when he ascertained that such purchase was made by the direct intervention of Isaiah Hanscom, he dropped it at once. He claims that the judge advocate came out here to make a case against him (Spalding), and suppress any evidence tending to implicate politicians, but that Admiral Rodgers and the court show a disposition to reach the real facts of the case.

Spalding Court-martial.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—At the Spalding court-martial to-day, on opening court, Spalding rose and stated that the article published in the Chronicle this morning purporting to be an account of an interview with himself had but a small substratum of fact and was entirely false. The article, as published, made Spalding reflect very severely on the Judge Advocate, Senator Sargent and others.

Appointments Declined.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—Ex Senator Eugene Casserly and Col. Mark L. McDonald have sent in communications to Mayor Bryant, declining appointment as commissioners to Washington. Senator Philip A. Roach has been tendered one of the commissionerships and has accepted. He will leave for the East during the coming week. The other name will probably be mentioned to-morrow.

Maltreatment of Chinese Immigrants.

While the Chinese passengers from the steamer Lord of the Isles were proceeding to China town last night, some disturbance occurred at the corner of Kearney and Washington streets, by hoodlums pelting the Chinese with mortar, which was only prevented from assuming serious proportions by the prompt action of the police. A strong force of police was posted at the wharf and on the line of march.

U. S. Paymaster Attacked and Robbed.

YREKA, May 6.—The mail carrier from Trinidad, on arriving at Sawyer's Bar, in this county, states that Col. Wingard, U. S. Paymaster, his clerk and a man named Baird were attacked by two highwaymen known as the "Two Brothers," who commenced shooting without giving any notice or warning, killing the clerk and shooting Wingard through the arm. The party were attacked between Trinidad and Hoopa valley in the redwoods. The clerk being ahead, was killed and $1,000 taken from his body. Wingard's horse getting frightened, ran off, and Wingard thus escaped with his funds, while Baird, who was behind, dismounted and took to the woods. Col. Wingard was on his way to Fort Gaston to pay off the troops. He has taken to the fort and his arm discovered to have been broken by the bullet. One of the robbers has also been caught.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—The U. S. paymaster robbed on the way to Fort Gaston proves to have been Col. Brodhead, in the 6th, instead of Col. Wingard. The clerk was only slightly wounded.

Delegates to State Convention.

YREKA, May 6.—At the Democratic Convention held in this place, the following delegates were elected to the State and Congressional Convention: William A. Farrish, Dr. Ream, John V. Brown, Austin Hawkins and R. O. DeWitt. The convention instructed for Hon. J. W. Tinnin, of Trinity, for Congress.

Crop Prospects in San Jose County.

MISSION SAN JOSE, Cal., May 6.—Prospects in this vicinity are most flattering for a bountiful harvest. The amount of land under cultivation this season exceeds by far that of any previous year. The bulk of the land here this season is producing barley and a large yield may with certainty be depended upon. The cool weather lately prevailing here had a very beneficial effect on the late sown grain. The farmers are getting ready for mowing, and in some of our ranches, especially on hill land where it is improving very fast, machines are active already. On a small piece of land here rye eight and a half feet long can be seen. Vineyards and orchards around are very promising.

Obtaining Money Under False Pretenses.

MARYSVILLE, May 6.—A confidence sharp, calling himself a son of H. B. Accidental Drowning.

BERKELEY, May 6.—Wm. Dresmix McCloskey, a member of the freshman class of the State University, was accidentally drowned this afternoon while bathing in the creek which feeds the reservoir back of Temascal. The deceased left Berkeley in company with two classmates shortly after noon. They entered the water between 3 and 4 o'clock, and had been in but a short time when McCloskey suddenly disappeared. His companions made every effort to recover the body, but to no avail. A delegation of students are now grappling for the body. The water in which the boys were bathing is thirty feet deep. McCloskey was a native of Yreka and about 19 years of age. His parents reside in Plainsbury, Merced county.

Instead of using strychnine to rid fields of squirrels, the farmers of Douglas county employ calomel, having found it to answer the purpose much better. It is rubbed on wheat and then scattered about where the squirrels have their place of habitation, and only a few days are needed to clear a farm from the pests and their ruinous depredations.

Lower Calapooia, a place not down on the maps, may be found about eight miles south west of Oakland. Although an unpretentious neighborhood, it merits now and then a passing notice. The principal employment of its citizens is farming, deer hunting and foot racing. Crops look well on high ground, but on the low lands are drowned out.

THE FUEROS

In the extreme northern part of Spain, among the mountains which separate that country from France and along the shores of the turbulent bay of Biscay live a brave hardy and industrious people who are said to be the lineal descendants of the Vandals who overran Spain in the beginning of the fifth century and who have never wholly yielded up their independence

When Spain became united under one monarch, the inhabitants of Guipuzcoa Alava Biscay and Upper Navarre refused to surrender many of their political rights and became as it were a republic within a kingdom. The original meaning of the word Fueros (from the Spanish word fuera outside) indicates that these provinces were outside of the general government of Spain. The government of these provinces is even more independent than that of the Dominion of Canada, for not even their chief magistrate can be appointed by the king without the approval of the junta or legislative body which is elected by universal suffrage. The inhabitants of these provinces pay no taxes of any kind except such as they impose upon themselves and these are restricted to such as are necessary for raising money for their own uses. They contribute nothing to the income of the nation. They are also exempt from conscription or forced military duty although many of them are in the army they are there only as volunteers. Claiming direct descent from the Vandals from whom they derive the sangre azul ("blue blood") which has become the boast not only of themselves, but of the Spanish grandees generally, they claim equal privileges with the Spanish nobility in all respects

Many efforts have been made by the Spanish monarchs to do away with the rights of these people, but hitherto unsuccessfully. In the 13th century these rights were reduced to writing, and were known as the Code of the Fueros—and finally the name Fueros was transferred from the provinces to the rights of the provinces and the term now is applied only to the laws thus codified. These Fueros have been modified at various times, and have more than once given rise to bloody and long continued wars. In 1844 they were formally acknowledged by the Cortes and Queen Isabella.

Under the present administration another effort is being made to abolish the Fueros and representatives from the provinces claiming them have lately held conferences with the representatives of King Alfonso, but no satisfactory conclusion has been reached. The government of King Alfonso claim the right to impose taxes and to exact military and naval duty, which is denied by the Fueros, and the situation is one which threatens to be productive of great trouble if not danger

STEINBERGER'S PLANS

When Steinberger first went to Samoa it was given out that his purpose was the philanthropic one of civilizing the Samoans and bestowing upon them the advantages of a stable and liberal government but, as is the case with many such professions, a very different real purpose underlaid the avowed one. What that was may be plainly seen in the following contract entered into by Steinberger with the commercial firm of J. C Godeffroy & Son, of Hamburg, shortly after Steinberger received the famous private letter of recommendation to the Samoan chief from President Grant. This contract was discovered among the papers of Steinberger after his fall from power. It reads

Agreement between Col A B Steinberger and Messrs J C Godeffroy & Son of Hamburg, in relation to their establishment at Apia Upolu Samoa

1 Col A B Steinberger proceeds to the Samoan Islands as United States commissioner in order to establish there a stable government based upon correct principles of administration * * * *

2 Col A B Steinberger who by his future position at Samoa and the endorsement of his home government, will evidently exercise a paramount influence in the Samoan Islands hereby pledges himself, in the interest of J C G. & Son to avoid all other business connections in America Europe and Samoa. He will * * * identify the interests of the Samoan government with those of J C G & Son, and secure for the latter appropriate representation

3. J C G & Son promise to assist Colonel Steinberger in his arduous task, and particularly to instruct their representatives at Apia to cultivate a friendly intercourse with the missionaries and keep a vigilant eye on the behavior of the crews of their vessels when on shore

4 J C G & Son promise as soon as the Samoan government is recognized by the United States government to use all their influence to procure a similar recognition from the German government * * *

It is further specially agreed that a. Col Steinberger is to procure for J C G & Son the approval and ratification by the Samoan government of all sales of land heretofore made to J. C G & Son by the natives

b The Samoan government is to permit the introduction of foreign labor (Chinese as well as that of other islanders) * * The Samoan government to furnish such ships as may be designated by the representatives of J C G & Son with permits for the importation of foreign laborers

q The Samoan government to determine upon a standard coin and if it is thought desirable to issue a legal tender paper currency J C G & Son to have the execution of this scheme as well as the coining of a metal circulating medium upon terms to be agreed upon by Col Steinberger and J C G & Son. The establishment of a government bank to be likewise entrusted to J C G & Son, upon conditions to be determined by them and Col Steinberger

r Of all copra or cocoanut fibre sold by the Samoan government to J C G & Son Col Steinberger to receive from J C G & Son $2 per ton s Col Steinberger to receive from J C G & Son a commission of [illegible] per cent upon their aggregate purchases of other products from the Samoan government

t Col Steinberger to receive a commission of ten per cent upon all purchases made by the Samoan government from J C G & Son

In witness whereof we the undersigned have this 10th day of September 18[illegible] affixed our signature

A B STEINBERGER
JOHN C GODEFFROY & SON

There was also found among Steinberger's papers another contract entered into with John H Latrobe of Baltimore in which Latrobe agrees to accompany Steinberger to Samoa and assist him in establishing a government and in carrying out the above contract. Latrobe is to get 25 per cent of Steinberger's profits and is to be provided with the next best or most profitable official position after Steinberger had satisfied himself. He was also to have an official residence, a free passage to Samoa, and to receive percentages on all the profits Steinberger might derive from any other sources

These contracts, first published in the New York Sun, will open the eyes of the public to the real purposes of Steinberger and go far to allay any irritation that might be felt on account of the assistance given to the Samoan king Malietoa by the British marines in deposing and expelling this adventurer as they show him to have been intent only upon personal gain at the expense of the people of Samoa

Mr Adams reasons why neither of the political parties would probably take him up as a candidate for the Presidency when read between the lines seems to be the suggestion of a strong reason, in his opinion, why the best men of all parties should select him. He says he has always been independent of party and declares that the result of the coming contest depends not upon the action of the Republicans or of the Democrats, but upon that of the Independents. The inference is unmistakable. But Sam Bowles' darling hope is not likely to be gratified nor Charles F to have a chance to run for that office

The telegrams contain appalling accounts of terrific wind and rain storms which have caused an immense deal of damage in Leavenworth and Chicago. We have a good deal of rain here and it is sufficiently disagreeable but we think our people would prefer to have it come a little at a time even if long continued, than all at once accompanied by furious winds, as seems to be the style in the Eastern States

The author of the following can give Munchausen any odds and win with ease. Because a man in Portland, Oregon deemed it necessary for the preservation of his authority at home to flog his wife, all the women in the vicinity met in counsel passed resolutions and then going to his house, whaled him until he became insensible

No man can become thoroughly acquainted with his family history without running for office

LETTER FROM HILLSBORO

HILLSBORO May 6 1876

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

The nomination by the State Convention of Mr R Williams for Congress seems to give satisfaction to all Republicans in this place. In fact those that were expected to oppose him have expressed their approbation of the nomination over that of the Democracy and doubtless this endorsement will give Mr Williams a handsome majority in this county. The platform is short and sweet —not enough of it for honest men to honestly "lie fer" about—and confined simply to a true statement of true Republicanism, and is therefore a host in itself

Mr R Stott the candidate for prosecuting attorney for the 4th district is a native of Washington county and it is gratifying to the county to have the honor of being once represented especially by the man of their choice. Mr Stott will be complimented in this county by a handsome majority of five or six hundred or sufficient to elect him decently

So far as the Presidency is concerned either Mr Blaine or Bristow would be very acceptable men. Some express a very slight preference between the men. If they could both be induced to run for President and Vice President, it would certainly be a good ticket and one that every honest Republican could vote for with satisfaction

A GOOD WASHING MACHINE.
COMPLETE WASHER

WITH GREAT SATISFACTION WE TESTIFY to the wonderful qualities of the COMPLETE WASHER Machine which is in use by many of the best families in our city because it makes the wash day one of pleasure, and causes no wear on clothing or tire to operator. It is by excessive and exhaustive labor by the women of our land who are boiling all day long on an ordinary family washing in the hot suds, wearing away their knuckle bones and very lives every week in the year, and going out from the seething tub to the cold air which causes our mothers, sisters and loved ones to take cold so easily causing pains in the back and limbs rheumatism, pleurisy chills and fever, etc, sometimes resulting in death. Ladies rescue yourselves from this thraldom and purchase a Complete Washer the Premium Washer of our land which economizes time and does away with this excessive labor for you know that for one to handle by hand large articles such a quilts etc that it is exceedingly difficult by the old mode. We advise and entreat everybody therefore, to have one of these Machines. They are within the reach of every family
[illegible] of Wringers and Clothes Lines always on hand
Of the great number who have this Machine in Oregon and on the Pacific Slope not one would part with it. Hundreds and thousands of such testimonials could be gotten

THE TURF.

Extensive preparations are being made by those who have charge of the East Portland race course in anticipation of the coming Centennial races

Present appearances indicate that the contests of speed which are to be made during the week mentioned will prove to be one of the most attractive features of that memorable occasion. The race grounds are to be enclosed with a high plank fence, and a portion of the brush and timber will be cut away to enable persons to obtain a clear view of every part of the track. A large stand is being built on one side of the track opposite the judges stand, which when finished, will seat at least 400 persons. Underneath the stand a bar is to be fitted up where all kinds of drinkables will be served during the continuance of the races. A long row of stalls are being fitted up adjoining the grand stand, where the horses are to be kept. In a few days the track will be harrowed up and leveled down and placed in splendid trim. Tennant and Ide the well known trainers are now at the track and have the following horses in course of training Osceola Tom Merry Mystery John Boggs Ophir Dick Waldron and Minnie [illegible] Several other horses are expected to arrive in the course of a few weeks and go into training

AMUSEMENTS.

Sherry Corbyn's Combination gave two performances on Saturday to crowded houses. Contrary to expectations no changes were made in the programme which naturally occasioned some disappointment. A scene [illegible] on the programme occurred [illegible] the evening as the Worrell Sisters were singing, when Miss Sophie fainted away [illegible] the effect of over exertion and heat of the room which occasioned some excitement. However the delay in consequence was brief and the vivacious little lady appeared again when she was warmly applauded, and went through the play as if nothing had occurred. This evening an entire change of programme is promised. The Portland public appreciate at all times a good performance with frequent changes an important fact which the shrewd manager Mr Corbyn will be careful not to overlook. With the promised novelties an enjoyable performance may be expected and a well filled house an assured fact

The cannon was booming loud and late. the Jefferson Brass Band discoursed in its sweetest strains and cheer after cheer went up from the surging multitude of hoodlums and the only important facts lacking to make the demonstration a grand success was the illumination of the city and a grand torchlight procession

There is a great deal of nonsense uttered upon the subject of small feet by women by [illegible] men and by shoemakers. A foot is not necessarily beautiful because it is small. If so small as to be out of proportion to the figure it is not beautiful, but a deformity or at least an anomaly. And in judging of its proportion the height and not the bulk or weight of the person to whom it belongs should be considered. The foot is the base, the support of the body and it should neither be too small to support it firmly nor for beauty's sake seem to be so. If a woman were to weigh 200 pounds at forty her foot would not be appreciably longer than it was when she weighed only 100 or so at fourteen. The most beautiful foot known is that of the Venus di Medici, and that is neither remarkably short nor remarkably narrow. Most women would look upon it as rather large. Indeed the Venus could not wear [illegible] nor indeed although she is rather a small woman [illegible] But so much the better for her. As to her foot it is a thing to be looked at daily with delight and admiration. A perfectly beautiful woman's foot should be in length a little less than one-seventh of her hight. It should be arched on the top so that the line is one half of Cupid's bow and underneath so that if it is wet and set upon the floor it will leave in the middle only a slender watermark. It should be broadest across the ball and the rosy toes of which the second should be the longest, should spread flat upon the ground at every step. The heel which should also be rosy should descend almost in a straight line from behind the ankle and should be delicately rounded. It should be white as ivory and marked upon the soft and cushionlike instep with faint indications of blue veins. It is remarkable that there seems to be some very fascinating idea connected with a woman's foot and particularly with its length for to "know the length of a woman's foot" has long been according to an old adage to enjoy the highest degree of her favor.—Galaxy

NOTHING TO DO BUT TO GO

A wanderer I've been, and I have traveled for years
By the stage coach the steamboat the train
I have known joyful meetings, have shed parting tears
With friends I might never meet again
And I've learned—learned farewells be joyous or sad
No have need strength to bestow
But with baggage prechecked a [illegible] with postage prepaid
To have nothing to do but to go

The loiterer when over the iron track
The [illegible]
For his last check [illegible] check
In [illegible]
While others [illegible] disturbed mind
Will [illegible]
Or quietly seated, will wait for the train
With nothing [illegible]

Oh [illegible] I have thought [illegible] called to depart
For the land whence we never return
May we find we are fully prepared for the start
When the death sound [illegible] we discern
With our ticket secure [illegible] our course [illegible] rest
[illegible] thoughts may we know
By tranquilly waiting, be found at the last
With nothing to do but to go

THE TERRITORIES

Wm I Crosby, of Tumwater, will ship 10,000 hoop poles by the Dakota on her next trip

Eggs sell at Colfax for six cents per pound That's one way of selling eggs and there's still another

A daughter of Mr Perkins of Walla Walla was thrown from a horse last week and her collar bone broken

A party of mining experts from Berlin will soon visit Utah Nevada and other mining States and Territories on the coast

The teachers convention called to meet in Olympia on the first day of June, has been postponed until the 26th day of July

Wheat has come up to 60 cents per bushel, but millers step very light at that rate and only purchase sufficient to supply the local trade

Moths are industriously working on the apple trees in Salt Lake and vicinity and if not soon brought to grief will destroy the apple crop this season

Last Sunday being the last of the month, Col Otis, commanding officer of Fort Walla Walla mustered and passed in review the troops, and found everything correct

Mr. Shirley, from Petaluma, Cal, purchased of James Reynolds of Walla Walla, 1,200 of fine cattle which are destined for the Raft river regions, adjacent to the new mines

The ladies of the Congregational Society of Olympia have been placed under obligations to the officers of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company by having the steamship Dakota tendered them for an excursion on the 8th or June next.

The Walla Walla Spirit says Fresh butter has come down to (zero) 25 cents per pound and not a great demand at that price even Dairymen and farmers begin to drop the lower lip and declare they won't make another pound until it comes up to a living remunerative figure

The water in Great Salt Lake is higher than ever before known since the advent of white men in the valley of the mountains, and if the swollen streams continue to pour their torrents into it at the rate they have been during the past week there is no telling where the salty pond will bring up

Reports of big strikes reach the Salt Lake Tribune from American Fork, Little Cottonwood, Big Cottonwood, Bingham and Ophir—all made in the past week If Utah don't turn out $12,000,000 this year we will acknowledge that we never saw a mine, and the big holes in the ground are a delusion and a snare

On Saturday morning, at 9 o'clock, the members of the order of Patrons of Husbandry met at Tacoma Hall, Olympia, and marched to the burial ground, near the residence of [illegible] Ruddell, where they strewed flowers on the graves of departed members of the order. From thence they visited other graves and payed tribute of respect to the dead.

On Chambers' Prairie, near Olympia, stands a part of the oldest house probably north of the Columbia river It was built in 1841 by Mr. Charles Peter, who lived there for some time, and when there were but three other white men in this section of country besides himself. The dimensions of the house are 10x10 feet, built of small fir logs about eight inches in diameter

The Olympian says there are a great many fraudulent papers pertaining to soldiers' additional homesteads afloat. Some are downright forgeries and others are duplications It is thought that this was the cause of the suspension of these entries at the Olympia office, a short time ago Persons buying this class of papers should only purchase from responsible parties as it is almost impossible to detect good ones from bad by mere inspection

A telegram received from Judge Lowe who is now in San Francisco addressed to the Olympian Railroad Union, requests that the maps and estimates of the Olympia Tenino route, in possession of Mr Bacon, be turned over to a committee representing capitalists who have been induced to investigate the project. A subsequent telegram says that the papers had been partially considered by the committee and that the impression was favorable to the enterprise.

We find the following in the San Francisco Bulletin of a late date. George Middlemas and others, owners of the ship Grace Darling filed a complaint in the nineteenth district court to day against Louis Menville Starr owner of the steam tug [illegible] which alleges that in November last the plaintiffs made an agreement with the defendant to tow the ship from Departure Bay to the Straits of Fuca When seven miles out of the bay the tug towed the ship on a rock and she sustained damages to the amount of $7 544 85, for which sum judgment is asked"

The Olympia Transcript says, "The unusually long continuance of the rainy season has hindered the growing of grain upon the bottom lands of Oregon and Washington, and many farmers are discouraged at the prospect The harvesting of a wheat crop sowed after this time will be attended with great uncertainty, owing to the lateness of the season when it would be ready for the reaper, and the dampness of the atmosphere at that time so that most of those who have not sowed wheat will prefer to sow oats and buy their flour This awkward situation cannot be attributed to any lack of industry on the part of our farmers as the rainy season set in much earlier than usual last fall and there has been no period of cessation of rain since that time during which plowing could be done Ordinarily there are several weeks of seed time during the winter months but the last winter has been an exception to this rule. Potato planting goes bravely on and large crops of vegetables and fruits may be expected No fear of starvation in these parts

BRITISH COLUMBIA

Mr Dawson, of the geological survey now at Victoria, will accompany Mr Cambie through British Columbia during the coming season

Mr, Wm Fernie has been appointed customs officer on the southern border of British Columbia in place of H E Seelye lately deceased D. Driscoll has been appointed tide waiter of the harbor of Victoria

The Foresters of Victoria will hold a grand fete at the Caledonian grounds on the 10th of June next when several new games will be introduced; amongst the rest a prize for archery to be competed for by ladies

Last year the miners of Cassiar paid a toll of two cents on every pound of goods taken across the Telegraph creek trail to or from the mines Under the new act the toll is reduced to one cent per pound and is not collected on goods etc coming out of the mines

The Oakland Independent of last Saturday says "Yesterday the directors of the Lucky Queen Mining Company held a meeting at Roseburg to decide upon the programme for future operations There was a full attendance and after the report of the Superintendent of the mine had been listened to it was unanimously voted that work on the mine should begin immediately and that ore be prepared for crushing in quantities sufficient for a steady summer's run after the machinery was got ready for reducing the same Our readers may expect to hear some glowing reports from this valuable mine in a short time proving conclusively that the big bonanza has at last been found in Southern Oregon
